Your passion deserves a beautiful showcase !

ShowCase

for your passion

Didier GODDERIS,
Communication architect-Set designer.

Spent nearly 20 years working in the communication and construction of exhibition space field, first in agencies, then in his own company "Question of Ideas".

Collector and passionate, he naturally wanted and had the idea of marrying his hobbies to his job to get a single activity: enhancing your passions.

Staging your passion

You are a collector of cars, motorcycles, airplanes, boats; you are passionate by sports, horses, history,...

Staging your passion, recalling and translating the related emotions, and that, by an enhanced decoration, a custom made proposition for your place (room, garage, ...) : this is our job.

This is your opportunity to share with your family or your customers your passion and the universe you care about. This is the chance to create a unique place that is your kingdom.

Imagining your project

A design born out of our exchanges

Listening to your expectations enables us to display our recommendation.

We want to understand your world, your passions, your desires and wishes.

Thanks to these exchanges, we make a project outline to help you to better visualize your future universe.

Realizing your universe

A custom made proposition

Your personality, the codes that are yours will help us to personalize your space.

Everything that defines you will be a source of inspiration. We will fulfill your wildest dreams.

We will use our network of qualified providers: furniture creators and designers, painters, illustrators, graphic designers, printers, ...

Improving with accessories

The quality and success of a display often depends on small details.

Using accessories is key to the success of your project. Of course, your objects will have a special place in this success.

We can also offer you our network of partners: antiquarians, specialist collectors, ... to search for specific objects.
